SIESTA KEY, SARASOTA, FL

Located on the shores of the nation's premier beach, this extraordinary contemporary residence with over 4700 sq ft stands as a beacon of modern elegance and architectural brilliance. Conceived by the acclaimed architect Yehuda Inbar in 1996, this Sarasota gem has an impeccable design and luxurious amenities.

The property is a testament to sophistication, with three expansive levels, each adorned with balconies that provide unparalleled views of the pristine Siesta Key Beach and the surrounding coastal beauty. The crowning jewel of this estate is the private rooftop pool, offering a serene oasis where you can soak in breathtaking 360-degree vistas of Sarasota's skyline and the shimmering Gulf of Mexico.

The owner's suite, an epitome of opulence, spans the entire third floor, offering a sanctuary of privacy and luxury. It features dual walk-in closets, seating area/ office space, separate bathrooms, a steam room, and a bidet, ensuring every comfort is met with the highest standards of design and convenience. While the property is officially recorded as a three-bedroom home, and is now a two bedroom, its flexible layout allows for a seamless conversion, providing endless possibilities to suit your lifestyle needs.

Every detail in this home has been thoughtfully curated, from the glass elevator to the graceful curved staircase that elegantly connects all three floors. The dining area, framed by two-story floor-to-ceiling windows, is bathed in natural light, with views of lush palm trees enhancing the serene ambiance. The staircase, encased in glass, serves as both a functional and artistic centerpiece, inviting natural light to cascade throughout the interior, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

This luxurious home is not just a home but a work of art, where every element has been meticulously crafted to deliver an unrivaled living experience on the most coveted stretch of Florida’s coastline.
